BATTLEGROUNDS MOBILE INDIA

TOURNAMENT

5. FAIR PLAY, RECORDING & DISQUALIFICATION — CONTINUED

- Captains must save and promptly submit the final results screenshot after every match. Report scoring errors or suspected cheating immediately with evidence.
- Using a Self-Revive Kit results in immediate disqualification. Deliberate prohibited glitch use soncels all points for that match and may cause tournament disqualification.
- Penalties may include a warning, point deduction, cancellation of match points, match disqualification, or removal from the tournament.

6. TECHNICAL ISSUES, RESULTS & CONDUCT

- Players are responsible for their device, battery, game updates, and internet connection. Personal lag, crashes, or disconnections normally do not earn a restart or rematch. Re-entry after disconnection requires organiser permission.
- A restart or rehost will be considered only for a major room or server failure affecting the match generally. Loading issues at the start require valid proof, including screen recording with the date and time, as stated in the supplied rules.
- Edited or fake evidence, or misleading reports, may lead to disqualification. Abusive, threatening, or discriminatory behaviour may result in a warning or removal.
- Refunds: no refund will be given if a team cannot participate or is found cheating; a full refund will be given only in the case of organiser error.
- Essential communication will take place in the official WhatsApp group. The organiser's final ruling will be based on the announced rules and available evidence.

PUBLICATION NOTE

The decision of the organisers is final.

BGMI TDM COLLEGE CUP

OFFICIAL ONLINE TOURNAMENT RULEBOOK

1. TOURNAMENT FORMAT

- Game: Battlegrounds Mobile India (BGMI) — Team Deathmatch (TDM), Warehouse, 4v4.
- Format: Single elimination. Matches before the final are Best of 3; the final is Best of 5. Any format change will be announced before registration closes.
- All matches use the same announced map and settings. The kill target, time limit, and allowed loadout will be published before the tournament.

2. REGISTRATION & TEAM ROSTER

- Register the team name, captain's name and contact, and each player's IGN and BGMI UID.
- Each team has 4 starting players and may register 1 substitute. Only registered players may play.
- Roster changes after registration closes require organiser approval. Account sharing and impersonation are prohibited.
- Teams must be online and ready 15 minutes before their scheduled match. Late teams may forfeit if they are not ready when called.

3. MATCH PROCEDURE

- The Room ID and password will be shared with team captains shortly before the match. Do not share room details outside your team.
- Join the correct room and team slot using your registered account. Captains must confirm all players are present before the match starts.
- The first team to reach the configured kill target wins the round. If time expires first, the team with more kills wins.
- If a round ends tied, play one rematch round. If a rematch is not possible, the organiser will apply the tie procedure announced before the event.

4. WEAPONS, MECHANICS & ITEMS

- Sliding is strictly prohibited.
- All throwables are prohibited, including grenades and any other throwable items available in the mode.
- Restricted weapons: shotguns, sniper rifles, DMRs, and LMGs are not allowed.
- To keep damage and time-to-kill more balanced, AWM, AMR, DBS, S12K, S686, S1897, M1014, M249, MG3, Groza, and AUG are prohibited. Use standard ARs and SMGs only.
- Allowed weapons: standard assault rifles and SMGs, excluding any weapons specifically restricted above. If an item or weapon is disputed, ask the organiser before the match.
- Cheats, hacks, modified game files, macros, unauthorised tools, glitch abuse, and map exploits are prohibited.

BGMI TOURNAMENT

5. FAIR PLAY & ONLINE CONDUCT

- Mobile phones only. Emulators, controllers, keyboard/mouse, and unauthorised external tools are prohibited.
- Teaming with opponents, match-fixing, deliberate feeding, account sharing, and impersonation are prohibited.
- Harassment, threats, discriminatory language, abusive messages, and deliberate disruption in tournament groups are not allowed.

6. DISCONNECTIONS & TECHNICAL ISSUES

- Each player is responsible for their device, battery, updates, and internet. Individual lag, crashes, or disconnections normally do not qualify for a restart.
- A restart may be ordered by the organiser only for a verified room server failure or a major issue affecting bhe match broadly.

7. RESULTS & DISPUTES

- Captains must submit a screenshot of the result screen after every match and report scoring issues immediately.
- Only the captain may submit a protest, within 5 minutes of the result, with screenshots or screen recording where available.
- Keep original, unedited evidence until results and disputes are finalised. Fake, edited, or misleading evidence may result in disqualification.

8. PENALTIES

- Depending on severity, penalties may include a warning, round loss, match loss, or team disqualification.
- Accidental first-time use of a restricted weapon or mechanic may receive a warning if minor and unintentional. Repeated or deliberate violations may result in a round loss or disqualification.
- Organisers will communicate the reason for any penalty to the team captain.

ONLINE EVENT POLICIES

9. SCHEDULE & COMMUNICATION

- The bracket, match timings, room instructions, and updates will be posted in the official tournament group.
- Captains are responsible for checking announcements and informing teammates. Missing an announcement is not grounds for an automatic rematch.

10. ENTRY FEE, PRIZES & REFUNDS

- Entry fee, prize pool, prize distribution, payment method, and registration deadline will be announced before registration opens.
- Refunds will be handled according to the policy published before payment. Keep payment proof until registration is confirmed.

11. ORGANISER DECISIONS

- By registering, all players agree to follow this rulebook and official announcements.
- Any clarification or rule change will be communicated to all teams and applied consistently.
- Organiser decisions will be based on the published rules and available evidence.
- The decision of the organisers is final.

Note: These are house rules for this online college tournament, not official BGMI restrictions. The restricted weapon list must be announced before matches begin and applied equally to every team.

COLLEGE TOURNAMENT

OFFICIAL RULEBOOK ▪ OFFLINE COLLEGE FOYER EVENT

- FORMAT — Qualifiers and knockout rounds: Best of 3 (BO3)
- GRAND FINAL — Best of 5 (BO5)
- HALF LENGTH — 3 minutes per half
- GOALKEEPER — World Class difficulty
- VENUE — College foyer • Offline play

1. TOURNAMENT OVERVIEW

- The tournament is open to college students only. A valid college ID must be shown if requested by the organisers.
- Solo participation only. Co-op play is not permitted.
- Matches will be played offline in the college foyer.
- The organisers will provide the gaming setup and controllers, subject to availability.
- Players must follow venue instructions and handle all equipment carefully.

2. TOURNAMENT FORMAT

- Qualifying matches will be conducted head-to-head. The order of play will be managed by the organisers.
- Each qualifying tie is Best of 3 (BO3): the first player to win two matches wins the tie.
- Players who win their qualifying tie advance according to the announced bracket.
- Knockout matches, including the semifinals, will be Best of 3 (BO3).
- The Grand Final will be Best of 5 (BO5): the first player to win three matches is the champion.
- The organisers will share the bracket and fixtures before play begins. Any format-specific clarification will be announced before the relevant round.

3. MATCH RULES & GAME SETTINGS

- Matches will use EAFC 26 and standard game rules. Each half will be 3 minutes.
- Goalkeeper difficulty will be set to World Class.
- Players may select international teams or club teams from available leagues.
- Rest of the World teams are not allowed.
- Custom squads, edited players, or other non-standard team edits are not allowed.
- The organisers will confirm all remaining settings before the first match. Settings must remain consistent for all players.
- Players must check their team and settings before kickoff. Once a match has started, it will not be restarted merely because a player selected the wrong team or settings.
- Intentional own goals, deliberate time-wasting, unfair pausing, exploiting glitches, or any attempt to gain a unfair advantage may result in a warning, match loss, or disqualification.

MATCHDAY PROCEDURES CONDUCT

Please read these rules before checking in.

4. CHECK-IN & MATCH SCHEDULE

- The detailed schedule, bracket, and player list will be shared before the tournament.
- Players should report at least 15 minutes before their scheduled match.
- A player who is not present at the scheduled time will receive a 5-minute grace period, unless the organisers announce a different policy before the event.
- After the grace period, the organisers may award a walkover to the opponent.
- Players should stay nearby and listen for match announcements so the tournament can run on time.

5. DISCONNECTS, CRASHES & TECHNICAL PROBLEMS

- If the console, game, or controller fails, stop play and call an organiser immediately.
- Do not restart or change anything without permission.
- The organiser will decide whether the match should be resumed, replayed, or awarded based on the situation and any reliable score and time information available.
- A deliberate disconnection or refusal to continue may be treated as a forfeiture.
- A rematch is not automatic. The organiser's ruling on technical interruptions is final.

6. FAIR PLAY & SPORTSMANSHIP

- Treat opponents, organisers, and spectators respectfully. Abusive language, profanity directed at others, harassment, or threatening behaviour will not be tolerated.
- Do not touch another player’s controller or interfere with a match in progress.
- Spectators must not distract players, obstruct the setup, or interfere with equipment.
- Unsportsmanlike conduct may result in a warning, match loss, or disqualification, depending on severity.

7. DISPUTES & ORGANISERS DECISIONS

- Raise any dispute calmly with the organiser as soon as it occurs.
- Do not argue with the opponent during play.
- The organisers will review the situation and make the final decision.
- The organisers may modify the schedule or clarify a rule if needed to keep the event fair and running smoothly. Any change will be communicated to affected players.

8. CONTACT INFORMATION

For registration, schedule, or tournament queries, contact:

Luhit Chetry	+91 6001512176

9. DISCLAIMER

- Players are responsible for checking their team and settings before starting. Matches will not be restarted after commencement except where the organiser permits it under the technical-problem rules.
- By participating, players agree to follow this rulebook and the reasonable instructions of the organisers.
- The organisers’ decision on disputes and tournament administration will be final.

Eternia Clash Royale Championship

Official Clash Royale Tournament Rule Book

Event detail	Information
Tournament Name	Eternia Clash Royale Championship
Game	Clash Royale (Mobile)
Eligibility	Open to college students and outsiders
Format	Competitive 1v1 tournament

Fair play: Compete fairly. Respect every player. May the best King win!

1. Tournament Format

The tournament will be conducted in multiple rounds, depending on the number of registered participants.

- The format includes qualifiers, quarter-finals, semi-finals, a third-place match, and a grand final.
- Matches will be played in a 1v1 format.
- The organizer will announce the bracket, match schedule, and progression before play begins.
- Both college students and outsiders may participate.

2. Match Rules

- Matches must be played using the game mode and match settings announced by the organizers.
- Each match will be a standard 1v1 battle. The organizer may use a best-of-three format for later rounds or the final and will announce this before the tournament.
- Players must use their own registered game account. Account sharing, impersonation, or switching accounts during the tournament is not allowed.
- Players must not intentionally disconnect, quit, or delay a match to avoid a loss.
- Players must follow the match referee's instructions and start only when told to do so.

3. Match Results and Tiebreakers

- The in-game result will determine the winner of each battle.
- In a best-of-three match, the first player to win two battles wins the match.
- If a battle ends in a draw, the players must follow the in-game result and the referee's announced procedure.
- If the game or format requires another battle, a replay will be arranged.

4. Decks, Cards, and Game Settings

- Unless a special format is announced, players may choose their own deck and change decks between battles.
- Players must not exploit bugs, glitches, or unintended game behaviour to gain an unfair advantage.

5. Fair Play and Prohibited Assistance

- The use of hacks, modified clients, bots, scripts, unauthorized third-party tools, or exploits is prohibited.
- Penalties may include a warning, battle loss, match loss, or disqualification, depending on the severity of the violation.

6. Registration and Check-in

- Participants must provide accurate registration details and the in-game player tag requested by the organizers.
- Players should check in at least 10 minutes before their scheduled match, or by the time stated in the event announcement.
- A player who is not present within 5 minutes after their match is called may forfeit the match, unless the organizer announces a different grace period.

7. Devices, Internet, and Technical Issues

- Players should disable calls, notifications, and other interruptions before a match.
- If a disconnection, server issue, or device problem occurs, the player must alert the referee immediately and must not restart or replay the match without permission.
- The referee may order a replay only when a significant technical issue has affected fairness and the circumstances can be reasonably verified.
- Routine lag, battery failure, unstable personal internet, or device issues do not automatically guarantee a replay. The organizer will decide each case consistently.

8. Tournament Progression and Forfeits

- Winners advance according to the published bracket. In a knockout stage, the losing player is eliminated unless a separate third-place match is scheduled.
- Byes may be assigned if the number of participants does not fit the bracket.

- A player who withdraws, fails to appear, or refuses to play may be recorded as having forfeited the match.
- Organizers may adjust the bracket or schedule when necessary due to participant numbers, delays, or technical problems. Any changes will be communicated to affected players.

9. Evidence, Complaints, and Disputes

- Players should show the result screen and may be asked to provide a screenshot or recording.
- Any complaint must be raised politely with the referee as soon as possible, ideally before the next round begins.
- Players alleging cheating or misconduct should provide specific details and any available evidence.
- Harassment, abusive behaviour, false accusations made in bad faith, or disrupting the event may result in penalties.
- The tournament head or designated lead organizer will make the final decision after reviewing available evidence.

10. Disqualification

- A participant may be disqualified for cheating, hacking, impersonation, account sharing, deliberate match manipulation, or unauthorized assistance.
- Repeatedly ignoring referee instructions, disrupting matches, falsifying registration details, or serious misconduct may also lead to disqualification.

Participation Agreement

By registering for or participating in the tournament, each player agrees to follow this rule book and the college fest's event policies.

RULES FOR 'Reyes del Fútbol'

1. TOURNAMENT STRUCTURE

1.1 FORMAT

The competition will start with a Group Stage and move into Knockout Rounds.

1.2 GROUP STAGE

- Players will be divided into 4 groups.
- Each player will play against the other players in their group.
- The top 2 players from each group will qualify for the Knockout Stage.
- A total of 8 players will advance.

1.3 GROUP STAGE RANKING RULES

- The league table will be updated after every Group Stage match.
- If two or more players are tied on points, goal difference (Goals Scored – Goals Conceded) will be used to decide the ranking.
- If goal difference is also the same, the player who scored more goals will be placed higher.
- If the goals scored are also the same, eliminator matches may be conducted between the tied players.

1.4 KNOCKOUT STAGE

After the Group Stage, the tournament enters a knockout format: lose and you are out.

Stages:

- Quarterfinals → 8 players → 4 winners
- Semifinals → 4 players → 2 winners
- Final → 2 players → Champion crowned

1.5 MATCH MODE

All matches will be played in 1 v 1 mode. Dream Team must be used.

RULES FOR 'Reyes del Fútbol'

2. MATCH PROTOCOL

2.1 PRE-MATCH REQUIREMENTS

- Match settings: 10-minute match duration. Extra time and penalties must be set separately for Knockout matches.
- Injuries must be turned off.
- The condition of players on both teams must be set to Normal. If any other player condition is set by the participant creating the match room, a complaint with a screenshot of the player condition must be submitted to the organiser. If misconduct is confirmed, the participant involved will be disqualified and the affected player will be awarded a 3-0 scoreline. Players are therefore advised to check player condition before every match.

2.2 IN-MATCH REQUIREMENTS

- Double attack and double defence are not allowed for the attack/defence bar setting.
- Participants must verify their connection stability. Connection stability is the responsibility of the participant. Complaints regarding the network graph will not be entertained.
- Participants must join the designated lobby at least 5 minutes before the scheduled start time.

2.3 POST-MATCH REQUIREMENTS

- After each match, the participant must submit a screenshot of the final score and the number of goals scored to the tournament organiser.

2.4 DISPUTE RESOLUTION

- Disputes must be submitted to the tournament organiser immediately after the match.
- All disputes will be reviewed by the organising team, and the final decision will be at the organiser's discretion.

3. PRIZE POOL

3.1 DISTRIBUTION

- The prize pool and distribution will be announced in the official WhatsApp group.

3.2 PAYOUTS

- Prizes will be distributed within 7 days after the tournament concludes.

4. REFUND POLICY

4.1 NON-REFUNDABLE CIRCUMSTANCES

- Refunds will not be given for personal connection issues, disconnections, or failure to attend the event.

4.2 ELIGIBLE REFUNDS

- Full refunds will only be issued if the tournament is cancelled due to an error or oversight by the organising team.

5. COMMUNICATION & UPDATES

5.1 WHATSAPP GROUP

- An official WhatsApp group will be created for tournament updates, notifications, and queries.

5.2 UPDATES

- Any changes to the rules or schedule will be communicated promptly.

WORLDGUESSR TOURNAMENT

OFFICIAL RULE BOOK

Tournament Name	WorldGuessr Championship
Game	WorldGuessr
Format	Competitive Geography Tournament

---

1. Tournament Format

The tournament will be conducted in multiple rounds.

- Players must join their assigned match rooms at the scheduled time.
- Depending on the number of participants, the tournament may include qualifiers, quarter-finals, semi-finals, and a grand final.
- The organizer has the final authority to decide the match format and schedule.
- Players must follow all instructions given by the tournament organizers.

2. Match Rules

- All matches must be played on WorldGuessr using the mode and settings specified by the organizers.
- Each match will consist of 5 rounds, unless announced otherwise.

- Players must identify the real-world location shown in each round.
- Players must submit their guesses before the round timer expires.
- No additional time will be given to players who submit their guesses late.
- Players must not intentionally leave a match to avoid losing.
- If a technical issue occurs, players must immediately inform the organizer.

3. Scoring System

- Points will be awarded according to the official in-game scoring system.
- The total score across all rounds will determine the match result.
- The player with the highest total score wins.
- If two players finish with the same score, a tiebreaker round will be played.
- If the game provides an official result screen, that result will be used to verify scores.

4. Fair Play Rules

- Using Google Maps, Google Search, or other external tools to identify locations during a match is prohibited.
- Using scripts, bots, cheats, hacks, or unauthorized extensions is prohibited.
- Receiving hints or answers from spectators or other players during a live match is prohibited.
- Exploiting bugs or glitches to gain an unfair advantage is prohibited.
- Sharing live match answers with other participants is prohibited.
- Deliberately disrupting another player's match is prohibited.
- Penalties: Violations may result in a warning, score penalty, match loss, or disqualification.

5. Time Limits

- Players must submit each guess within the official round timer.
- Players must be ready before the scheduled match begins.
- A player who fails to join within 5 minutes of the scheduled start may forfeit the match.
- Organizers may adjust the time limit if a technical problem affects the tournament.

6. Disconnects and Technical Issues

- Players are responsible for maintaining a stable internet connection.
- If a player disconnects, the organizer will review the situation.
- A rematch may be permitted if a major technical issue affects the fairness of the match.
- Repeated disconnections or deliberate quitting may result in a forfeit.
- Organizers will make the final decision on disputed technical issues.

7. Tournament Progression

- Winners advance to the next round according to the announced bracket.
- In knockout matches, the losing player is eliminated.
- In group or points-based stages, qualification depends on the published standings.
- Players must not intentionally lose matches to influence the bracket.

8. Evidence and Disputes

- Players should take screenshots or recordings of final scores when requested.
- Any complaint must be submitted to the organizer promptly after the match.
- Players must provide evidence when accusing another participant of cheating.
- False accusations, harassment, or abusive behavior may lead to penalties.
- The organizer's decision is final after reviewing the available evidence.

9. Code of Conduct

- Respect all players and organizers.
- No abusive language, harassment, threats, or discriminatory behavior.
- Do not spam the tournament chat.
- Follow the official schedule and tournament announcements.
- Treat all participants fairly and maintain good sportsmanship.

10. Disqualification

- A player may be disqualified for confirmed cheating or unauthorized assistance.
- Deliberately manipulating match results.
- Repeatedly violating tournament rules.
- Impersonating another participant.
- Serious misconduct toward players or organizers.
- Refusing to follow a final ruling on a rules violation.

11. Final Authority

- The organizers reserve the right to interpret these rules, resolve unforeseen situations, and make reasonable adjustments when necessary to preserve competitive fairness.

By participating in the tournament, every player agrees to follow this rule book.

GOOD LUCK, PLAYERS!

Explore the world. Trust your knowledge. Make your best guess!
