Costume Construction Disclosure

Contestants should disclose whether major costume components are self-made, modified, purchased or commissioned. Judges may ask brief questions about construction if needed to assess craftsmanship fairly.

Stage & Time Rules

•Individual performance: recommended maximum 60-90 seconds.

•Duo/group performance: recommended maximum 2-3 minutes.

•All contestants must receive the same maximum performance time within their category.

•Music/audio should be submitted according to the organiser's instructions.

•Props and performance elements must be safe and suitable for the venue.

Detailed Judging Guidance

A. Costume & Craftsmanship - 35 Marks

•Costume accuracy / successful interpretation - 10
•Construction quality and finishing - 10
•Detailing and attention to detail - 5
•Makeup, hair and styling - 5
•Props and accessories - 5

Fairness note: Do not reward a contestant merely because the costume is large, expensive or complicated. Assess how successfully the contestant executed the chosen design.

B. Character Portrayal - 20 Marks

•Body language and posture
•Facial expressions and mannerisms
•Voice/dialogue where applicable
•Consistency with the character's personality
•Ability to make the audience recognise the character through performance

C. Stage Performance - 20 Marks

•Stage presence and confidence - 5
•Creativity of performance - 5
•Timing and execution - 5
•Audience engagement - 5

D. Creativity & Interpretation - 15 Marks

•Unique interpretation - 5
•Creative use of costume/props - 5
•Originality of concept or performance - 5

Anime accuracy alone must not automatically receive higher creativity marks. Mythological characters, book characters, comics and less-known franchises can score equally.

E. Overall Impact - 10 Marks

Consider the overall impression created by the contestant. This is not a popularity mark. Judge how effectively costume, portrayal, performance and creativity work together.

COSMOS
ISEKAI IRL

Rules for Fair Judging

- Do not award marks based on franchise popularity, fandom size or personal preference.

- Do not penalise or reward contestants for height, body type, skin tone, facial features, gender, ethnicity or natural hair.

- Do not expect the contestant to physically resemble the character. Judge the quality of the cosplay and portrayal.

- A simple costume can win over a highly elaborate costume if it is better executed and performed.

- Do not assume that an expensive costume was self-made.

- Purchased or commissioned costumes may participate. Craftsmanship marks should reflect only work demonstrably done by the contestant.

- For original characters, judge design coherence, creativity, execution and performance rather than source accuracy.

- Do not allow prior knowledge of a franchise to influence the score.

- Judges should score independently before discussing the final rankings.

Safety & Conduct

- No real weapons or hazardous items.
- No dangerous, flammable or explosive materials.
- Props are subject to organiser/security inspection.
- No harassment, discrimination, hate speech or intentionally offensive conduct.
- No deliberate damage to venue property.
- Contestants must respect fellow participants, organisers, volunteers and judges.

Disqualification / Penalty Considerations

A contestant may be disqualified or penalised for:

- Use of prohibited or dangerous props.
- Serious misconduct or harassment.
- Deliberately damaging venue property.
- Falsely claiming another person's craftsmanship as their own where the claim materially affects judging.
- Exceeding performance limits after organiser warnings, where the competition format specifies penalties.
- Any serious breach of the official event rules.
